

Ralph Mansfield, Manchester, lithographer.
 William Pearson, Manchester.
 George Upton, Manchester, plumber.
 Alexander Bertram, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, cheese factor.
 Philip Marks, Amblecote, Staffordshire, schoolmaster.
 George Cartwright, Wolverhampton, butcher.
 William Willison, Stamford, Lincolnshire, printer.
 Henry Goulder, jun., late of Kimberley, Nottinghamshire, bricklayer.
 John Lamb, Nottingham, general clothier.
 Thomas Allwood, Nottingham, farmer.
 Robert Wild, Rayton-of-the-Eleven-Towns, Shropshire, tailor.
 Joseph Clarke, Oswestry, fruiterer.
 James Dean, Chester.
 Thomas Smith, Spennymoor, Durham, joiner.
 John Nicholson, late of Chester-le-Street, Durham, publican.
 John Needham, Petherhanworth, Lincolnshire, licensed victualler.
 David Robinson, Lincoln, joiner.
 Henry Bates, Walsall, coal dealer.
 George King, Sheffield, beerhouse-keeper.
 William Appleyard, Sheffield, fishmonger.
 John Sharp, Sheffield, tool fitter.
 Thomas Walworth, Manchester, baker.
 John Dean Newcombe, Liverpool, solicitor to an insurance company.
 Edward William Meredith, Hulme.
 Rachael Clegg, Bury, Lancashire, grocer.
 Eliza Crosby, Hazel's-cottage, Prescot.
 John Hutchinson Gallaher, Hazel's-cottage, near Prescot.
 Jane Cole, Exeter, hosier.
 Joseph Scholefield, Oak, Hollins with Oldham, Lancashire.

The rumour of Sir George Clark's retirement, reported by the English Mail of the 18th September, was current in Bombay before: but nothing certain upon the matter is known.

Telegraphic advices from all parts of India confirm the hope that the country will escape the general visitation of cholera which was so much dreaded. The disease seems to have travelled northward from its first appearance in Rajpootana and Delhi, Kandahar having already suffered severely. In Kandahar, eight thousand persons are stated to have fallen victims to cholera in eighteen days.

Lord Canning will not leave India, it is said, till the beginning of March next. On the 28th inst. he will proceed to Allahabad, returning thence on November 5. The Foreign Office establishment will accompany him. About the middle of November he will start for Rangoon in the Feroze, attended by the Home Office establishment. On his return to Calcutta towards the end of the year, the Feroze will leave for Suez to wait the arrival of Lord Elgin, who is not expected in Calcutta till early in February. As it is considered important that Lord Canning should remain for some time with his successor, the present Viceroy will not bid farewell to India till the full six years of office have expired. Early in March he will sail in the Feroze for Suez.

It is stated that important changes in the Indian navy will shortly be carried into effect. Orders have been issued for its reduction to four ships for transport service. Vessels of the Royal Navy will perform the work of the Indian navyships.

A report of the Military Department of 1860-61 on the reductions in the native army shows a reduction of more than 64,065 men of all ranks, and a saving fully equal to one crore of rupees. A large reduction in the native cavalry is under consideration.

PARIS, NOV. 6TH, EVENING.—The Press of this evening states that the occupation of the valley of Dappes by French troops continues.

—The Patrie of this evening asserts that the session of the Senate, and the Chamber of Deputies, will open on the 15th January next. According to the same paper, the contingent which France will dispatch to Mexico, will number 3000 men.

—A Berlin telegram of Wednesday, in the Daily Telegraph, says some important reforms will be announced on Thursday.

—The Pays publishes an article, signed by M. Dreolle, criticising the conduct and policy of Baron Ricasoli's cabinet, which it says has addressed a kind of ultimatum to the only ally of Italy in Europe. It highly eulogises Signor Ratazzi, and declares that he is the only man who is fit to be at the head of the Italian Ministry. The article concludes:—"A cabinet under the Presidency of Signor Ratazzi would now be the best token of a good understanding between Italy and France, and would moreover be a sure guarantee of a renewal of intimate negotiations, the issue of which is so anxiously desired, not only by Italians, but by all Frenchmen who love Italy.

BERNE, NOVEMBER 6TH.—The report of the Federal commissioners on the affair of the valley of Dappes, concludes by recommending the Federal Government to bring about a solution of the differences with France as speedily as possible.

AMERICA.—Liverpool 10.35 a.m.—The C.C. Etna s.s. from New York, has arrived.

REDUCTION OF BANK RATE.—The bank has reduced the rate to three per cent.

FUNDS. (Close).

Consols for money 93½ | Bank Stock 228-30
 Do. for Ac. Dec. 5. 92½ ex. div. | Exch. Bills. large Mar. 5. 10

