

cavalry.—
panied with y Stirling's lar road, to e village of y be applied
; order, but he English Guards and rse in three ned into a our cavalry, spears, and soon found themselves arrows, after a the same light by the acing horseough of the

it will

“ The Maharajah of Travancore has been succeeded by the first prince, and not by the heir apparent, who has been set aside on account of alleged imbecility.

“ Rifle corps are being organised throughout India, and Government has offered to furnish arms and instructors, under liberal conditions.

“ Europeans and East Indians in the Punjab have been exempted from the operation of the Disarming Act.

“ The Governor of Bombay and Commander-in-Chief are on a tour through the Southern Mahratta districts.

“ It is feared (says the Overland Friend of India) that there will be a necessity for a loan in India to meet the deficit. It is expected that Government will shortly make a statement as to the reduction in military expenditure they are prepared to carry out in consequence of the suggestions of the military, finance, and police commissions.

“ The rebel Thakoor of Awah has been apprehended. Eeroze Shah is in Rajhgurb, Central India.

“ Government has issued a notification informing the local European army that the amalgamation of the armies will not affect their rights or privileges ; that they will not be called on to serve out of India during the term of their engagement.”

of a magic la singular phen
ing halo alter
the decrease reached our altogether. C what we had v fessor Tynda
Glaciers of th
experience an themselves h

A very hairbreadth e Pembroke-shi
on Saturday
double-barrel
one barrel, w position, whe
off his head injury.

At Kilm
ing the mach caught by a

"HOW BEAUTIFUL IS HARM!"
On God how beautiful is harm!
How beautiful is harm!

REVEREND FOR OUR COUNTRY.
The pre-eminence of philosophy, and the few and far between, has differed

ROYAL GAZETTE.—Paragraphs have lately made of the non-provision of the country and about the

THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY AND THE PRIME MINISTER.
The speech of Sir J. Stansfeld at Worcester last week

THE CAPTURE OF THE TAKU FORTS.
THE OCCUPATION OF TIENSIN.
CAMP TAIKOW. THE FERRY. &c. &c.

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A very serious, and we may appropriately say hazardous case occurred to Captain J. G. of the

THE SOFFERS.—It is said in Scripture, fools make a name for themselves.

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

THE LATE EARL DONINGTON.
After attaining to an age beyond man's ordinary life,

GEORGE ALFRED WILSON.—A letter from Warsaw
concerning a young man of the name of George Alfred

THE DAWGERS. Reports of Russia dated on Thursday
the 27th inst. have been published in the Standard

THE MONEY MARKET.
The position of the money market has remained stationary since the

THE SPECTER OF THE BROOKS.—A correspondent
of the Spectator has been writing to us from the

A singular and very melancholy accident happened
at Kilmahon, Ireland, two youths were walking