

Order without Signature, Cypher or seal, apparently from Mirza Moghal, dated 16th August 1857

To--The Especial Slave, Emblem of Good Intentions, Rajah Nahar Singh of Ballabgarh.

Consider yourself honoured. Frequent occasions for verbal instructions occur, and a necessity is then felt for the presence of the trusted representatives of our faithful retainers. It is accordingly necessary and proper that an agent from you, our special slave, should remain in attendance. You are therefore directed to nominate two of your trusted servants as your agents, and to send them to the Royal Court, so that whenever verbal orders may be necessary no difficulty may be experienced. Entertain every confidence, and in sending the agents allow no delay to occur, for with the blessing of God, it is not possible or probable that they can have anything to dread or fear from this Court. Consider yourself honoured.
