

To the Sup Govt
Madras
10 July 1864

At the instance of the Commissioner of Revenue of the District of Tanjore I have been instructed by the Government
to ascertain whether the names of the individuals to whom pensions have been allowed by the Army and who have been regularly paid from
the Treasury have been submitted to the local authorities
for their consideration
and if necessary
to be referred to the Government
for their consideration
Rs 71 for revision

prisoners to the

as the expense of the persons, for every one of them he can furnish by force. This will not lead to the loss of the amount already received, as it will be more than
by the reduction of
interests P & C.

I have also the honor
to submit a bill
for the amount already paid to the person in charge
and to solicit the payment of the balance.
