violence generally. The inhabitants have commenced plundering travellers. Accordingly two petitions regarding the conduct of these disturbers of the peace, have already been submitted, and I am now in hopes that some challenge (primes) of reputation and capacity may be deputed with a sufficient force of Cavalry, Infantry and Greniers to settle this village (the portion of country constituting the petitioners jurisdiction) Your well-wishing slave will then be able to point out these lawless villagers and for the future to prevent more and prevent crime.
If delay or inaction is allowed to proceed, there is reason to fear many lives will be sacrificed. Further as some men of the Police establishment were stationed in premises
