22 I agree with the D. of Ireland in considering that it would not be advisable to permit any question with regard to the Motion of the to move in the session granted to the D. of the House of Commons are inability for any motion in a Civil Court even to suppose that the D. of the House of
of the House of Commons.

Book No 82 of the 9th March 1864 did not attend to any purpose of any kind

3 with reference to sum of the 20th 1864 above No ¹⁵⁻⁶ 203 above quoted sum the same to be paid in the a given by the Treasurer of Rs 5000 to the Navy the first has already disposed of the purchase of confiscation of the D/20-¹⁰⁰ Jan'y 79: ¹⁰⁰ July 1866.

Forwarded in original, report of the Dy. Com. Delhi, No. 150/253 of 25. mt., with enclosures.

Agree with the Dy. Com. in think-ing that would be inadvisable to open any question with regard to those who claim to have in the pension granted to Mirza Elahi Baksh.

These claims are matters for adjustment in a civil Court.
